SIGLAKAS 2026

MANUAL OF OPERATIONS and OFFICIAL GUIDELINES
for GAMES AND SPORTS

RATIONALE

The Office of the Student Sports and Wellness (OSSW) of the Davao Oriental State University (DOrSU) is dedicated to promoting physical education and encouraging sports programs, league competitions, and amateur sports, including training for international competitions, foster self-discipline, teamwork, and excellence for the development of a healthy and alert citizenry as outlined in Article XIV, Section 19 of the Philippine Constitution. Further, all educational institutions shall undertake regular sports activities throughout the country in cooperation with athletic clubs and other sectors.

A sport is a medium for positive values formation. Henceforward, considering that sport is part of the tertiary education curriculum, it behooves upon the Davao Oriental State University (DORSU) to harness the potential of its students and utilize its sports league as a vehicle for the promotion of the above-cited values. In doing so, the University shall play a vital role in attaining the vision and goals that the institutional sports leaders must set to achieve and shall catalyze change.

SIGLAKAS comes from the two combined words such as “Sigla” and “Lakas” which simply denotes as active and robust. SIGLAKAS is an annual sports competition of the university that battles against challengers who are the most formidable athletes. SIGLAKAS sets the tone to become a healthy individual guided by its theme “Fitness, Fun, and Friendship. Thus, this manual of operations and official guidelines for SIGLAKAS is of vital importance to serve as directions for everyone.

OBJECTIVES OF SIGLAKAS

In consonance with the principle that sports shall be a vehicle for the inculcation of positive Filipino and universal human values, the objectives of the DORSU SIGLAKAS are the following:

1. Provide opportunities for officials to conceptualize, develop, organize, and implement programs of sports that will complement the other components of the curriculum aimed at developing higher levels of skill, understanding, appreciation, and knowledge, positive attitudes, and values designed to develop the full potential of the students;
2. Provide opportunities for the coaches to identify, and select athletes with competitive skills to join the varsity and undergo further training in preparation for the higher national or international sports competition;
3. Produce ample sports equipment for sustained sports and fitness programs after the SIGLAKAS which will be intended for the faculty, staff, and students of the college;
4. Provide opportunities for sports participation of students of varying skills and talents, so that in the process of active participation, the “cream of the crop” will rise to the top to become the carriers of our institution’s colors in a higher level of sports competitions;
5. Ensure that the Olympic ideals inherent in the practice of sports and the reasons for which the DORSU SIGLAKAS shall be staged every year, at great expense and effort, are observed and kept so that these intramural games shall become a tradition and legacy of great men of Davao Oriental State University (DORSU) to do great things for the honor of the country and greater glory of God.

OTHER GAMES

The mechanics and guidelines for traditional (Tug-of-war, Skipping Rope, and Chinese Garter) and mind games (Word Scrabble, Word Factory, and Rubik's Cube) are hereunder outlined as part of the SIGLAKAS competition:

MECHANICS AND GUIDELINES FOR TRADITIONAL GAMES

a. TUG OF WAR

1. The competition is open to all bonafide students of Davao Oriental State University.
2. Each faculty must have a team of eight (8) members only as representatives, composed of four (4) males and four (4) females.
3. One (1) referee will officiate the game.
4. Two teams will compete against each other.
5. The center of the rope should align with the center marked on the ground.
6. As soon as the referee blows the whistle, each team can start pulling the rope into their territory.
7. No cleats will be allowed at the competition. Anchoring, or looping around the end of the rope shall be allowed.
8. No Gloves, no play.

9. As soon as the majority of the players cross over the center, the team to pull the rope to their area wins the round.
10. The winning team must win two (2) out of three (3) pulls. A knock-out system shall be used.

b. SKIPPING ROPE

1. Each faculty should create a team composed of ten (10) members. Four males and 4 females shall synchronize to jump or skip over the rope without contacting or stopping the rope. The remaining two (2) members shall be their drivers to control and maneuver the skipping rope of their team.
2. While jumping, the players may start chanting a rhyme that represents their faculty.
3. The highest number of successful jumps will be declared as the winner.

c. CHINESE GARTER

1. Each faculty/team should choose their representative (one male and one female).
2. There will be two posts holding the two ends of the garter to ensure accurate distance.
3. The players should transfer over to the opposite side of the garter without being tripped.
4. In case there is no available post, the stature of the garter increases starting from the lower leg level, knee level, until the point of the garter is situated overhead.
5. Performing cartwheel to cross the garter in higher levels is allowed.
6. The team who will reach the last level will be declared the winner

MECHANICS AND GUIDELINES FOR MIND GAMES

a. WORD SCRABBLE

1. The competition is open to all bonafide students of Davao Oriental State University.
2. Each faculty must have two (2) players. One for the male and one for the female category.
3. Two (2) to three (3) players from different faculties are required to start the game set.
    a. Without looking at any of the tiles in the bag, players will take one tile each. The player that has the letter closest to “A” will begin the game. In case a player got a blank tile, he/she will be the first one to start. All tiles will then be placed back in the bag and will be used for the remainder of the game.
    b. Players initially draw 7 tiles each and place them on their rack. The first player combines two or more of his or her letters to form a word and places it on the board to read either across or down with one letter on the center square. (Diagonal words are not allowed.) After playing a word, the player receives replacement letters, one for each letter played. Following the first turn, players alternate.

c. The letters placed in a single turn must all be in a single horizontal row or a single vertical column, and the letters placed (plus letters already on the board) must form a single word from the dictionary, with no gaps. Each new word must connect to the existing words.
d. Note: Only the words that can be found in the Standard English dictionary are acceptable.

4. The game will end once all tiles are gone from the bag and a single player has placed all of their tiles. When the game ends, each player will count all points that are remaining on their tiles that have not been placed on the board and will be deducted from the final score.
5. The player with the highest score wins. The winner of each set (all first) will continue to play and determine the best of the game set (1st, 2nd, 3rd).

b. WORD FACTORY

1. The competition is open to all bonafide students of Davao Oriental State University.
2. Each institute should provide 2 players only. One for the male and one for the female category. To play the word factory, a composition of three (3) game sets to cover all participating teams.
3. The game begins by shaking a covered tray of sixteen cubic dice, each with a different letter printed on each of its sides.
   a. The dice settle into a 5x5 tray so that only the top letter of each cube is visible.
   b. After they have settled into the grid, a three-minute sand timer is started and all players simultaneously begin the main phase of play.
4. Each player searches for words that can be constructed from the letters of sequentially adjacent cubes, where "adjacent" cubes are those horizontally, vertically, and diagonally neighboring.
   a. Words must be at least three letters long, may include singular and plural (or other derived forms) separately, but may not use the same letter cube more than once per word.
   b. Any words (noun, verb, adjective, adverb, etc.), plural of, a form of, or tense is acceptable as long as they can be found in a Standard English dictionary (Scrabble dictionary is also applicable). Proper nouns (Smith, Ohio, France, etc.) are NOT allowed. Words within words are also permissible: spare, spa, par, are, spar, and pare.
   c. Each player records all the words he or she finds by writing on a private sheet of paper. After three minutes have elapsed, all players must immediately stop writing and the game enters the scoring phase.
5. In the scoring phase, each player reads off his or her list of discovered words. If two or more players wrote the same word, it is removed from all players' lists. Any player may challenge the validity of a word, in which case a previously nominated dictionary is used to verify or refute it. For all words remaining after duplicates have been eliminated, points are awarded based on the length of the word.
6. The player with the most points wins, with ties usually broken by the count of long words. The winner of each set (all first) will continue to play and determine the best of the game set (1st, 2nd, 3rd).
